april, 1894, enquiring from the question of Contribution for Hulhalli channel new lands, and what are the rates fixed for dry, Bagar and wet lands, I have the honor to submit Copy of letter no 41, dated 30th november, last, from Mr. Venkata Rao, 3rd Grade Assistant Commissioner, reporting that water was let into the channel only last year, to a distance of 10½ miles, and that Contribution will be levied on lands irrigable up to that distance, in Conformity with the instructions conveyed in Government Proceedings no 3144 dated 10th 232
July 1890, Viz at 3¼ of the rates adopted for 3/-/-
wet, Bagar and dry lands under Bamboo Channel.

A Statement shewing the approximate amounts of contribution recoverable, and the extent of irrigable lands for the first 10½ miles is herewith appended, for your information It will be seen that the total irrigable area is 785 A - 11 G, of which 610 acres and 4 guntas are in ryoto holdings, and 175 A - 4 G are Government waste - The contribution payable on the former, amounts to Rupees 12347 - 8 - 0

Endeavours will be made to fix, and recover the amounts of contribution in pursuance of Government instructions, on lands that will hereafter be brought under wet cultivation, as water is let into the Channel lower down.
